It has been a question whether a candidate for Sheriff could name his deputies before the primary. Attorney General M. M. Logan has answered, and says that a candidate for sheriff does not violate the Corrupt Practice act by naming his deputies before the primary. This decision enables a candidate for Sheriff to name his deputies if he so desires.

Respt., Tobias Huffaker.

That story about Col. Ben Lee Hardin, of Harrodsburg, getting into a swollen stream and barely escaping with his life, may be believed by some folks, but the people down here with whom the Colonel grew up with, know better. He was reared in Columbia, and when a young man, and during summer days, two-thirds of his time were spent in the "Old Long Hole," Russell's Creek. He could stay in the water longer, swim farther and dive deeper than any boy in the bunch, and to-day he is not any more afraid of water than the fish that live in it.

A CARD.

To the Republic voters of Adair County:—

In announcing myself as a candidate for nomination on the Republican ticket I wish first to thank the good people who supported me in my first race. I made that race as an Independent because of existing conditions at that time and was supported by men of all parties. The facts of the situation then are familiar to all. I am a Republican and have always been a firm believer in the political principles of that party. At the same time I have been an ardent advocate of the prohibition of the Liquor Traffic. I still am. I am heartily in favor of submitting the Prohibition question to the people for their decision separate and apart from political entanglements. I would also favor the adoption of Prohibition as a plank in the Republican platform.

In my administration I have striven to be just, honest and efficient. I have made no difference between friends and foes, I have not intentionally or knowingly shown any partiality, and as far as available means would go I have striven to meet the needs of Adair County Schools. The experience of one term naturally fits a man for doing better work in a second term. I pledge myself if nominated and re-elected to attend faithfully and efficiently to the duties of this very important and responsible office. I most respectfully solicit your votes and your influence.

Very Respectfully, Tobias Huffaker.

THE PRESIDENT ANSWERS.

Friendly and diplomatic relations between this country and Germany were discontinued last Saturday due to Germany's avowal to renew unrestricted submarine warfare, disregarding the property and lives of neutrals. President Wilson has done all that any chief official could do to prevent a break with Germany, but under Germany's present course there was no honorable escape. Since it has come no one who is truly American will fail to endorse this course or to support the policy, whatever it may be, to protect the lives, property and commercial interests of this country. There have been some in every section who have denounced the President for his course of negotiation and forbearance, claiming that he was not protecting the honor of this government; that he should resort to arms to wipe away the stains on our flag. This crowd, however, was and is a very small one. Now, since the crisis has come and the course they desire has been proclaimed, every man who criticized the President for using all honorable means to prevent war ought to offer their services, but the chances are that the war-like, before the war, will never be seen in the front ranks if hostilities follow. War is dreadful, costly and destructive, and we had hoped that our country could avoid it, but the decree has gone forth and we endorse it.

A Sudden Death.

Last Tuesday afternoon, Olie Willis who was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Willis, this place, died very unexpectedly. He was nineteen years old, and about one week before his demise he went home, complaining and subsequently took his bed. He was not considered much sick, and for a week he was treated for bilious fever, Dr. S. P. Miller being the attending physician. Tuesday afternoon his condition became alarming, and two other physicians were called, Drs. Russell and Hindman. About 4:30 o'clock he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs, dying about 5 o'clock.

He was popular with his associates and, his death was a great shock to them. He was the youngest child of his parents and his demise was heart-rending to them. Besides his parents, he leaves three brothers and two sisters, all of them absent from home, but one—Mrs. Morrison.

Religious services were held at the residence Thursday forenoon between ten and eleven o'clock, quite a number of relatives and friends being present. Rev. O. P. Bush, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiated, making a beautiful talk which evidently brought comfort to the parents, relatives and friends. The interment was in the city cemetery.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the stricken family, now heartbroken, admonishing them to take their sorrow to God for He alone can comfort and bind up the wounds of aching hearts.

John L. Darnell Announces.

There are but few better known young men in Adair county than John L. Darnell, who lives in the Harmony precinct. In politics, he is a Republican, and in to-day's News he announces his candidacy for Jailer of Adair county, subject to the August primary. Long before he became a voter he was an active worker in the ranks and his night was too dark for him to leave his home and work for the candidates of his choice. His moral character is above reproach and courageous sufficient to make a watchful Jailer. He has never been an office seeker, but he is anxious to serve this county as its Jailer. He asks that his Republican friends examine his record as an up right citizen and his fidelity to his party, then if they think he is worthy, go to the polls in August and vote for his nomination. Should he be nominated, he assures the Republicans of Adair county that he will do every thing in his power, in an honorable way, to win at the November election. From now until the primary he asks that his friends keep Darnell constantly in their minds, and win all the votes they can for him, and in the meantime he will be active himself.

Grateful.

We feel very grateful to the many friends who called and waited upon husband and father during his long illness, ending in death. Friends who come to your rescue in time of serious illness, are worth having, and will ever be kept in remembrance.

Mr. John B. Coffey, of this place, has been appointed by Gov. Stanley, a Supervisor in the Feeble Minded Institute, at Frankfort, and left last week to enter upon the discharge of his duties. Mrs. Coffey, who is a very excellent lady, has been tendered a position in the same institution, and will decide as to acceptance later.

Arrested in Cincinnati.

Thomas Rich and Albert West, who live on Barnett's Creek, Adair county, are now in the coils of the law. There are several indictments in the Adair circuit court against them, and some weeks ago they left the county, making their way to Cincinnati. In a short time they held up a street car in the suburbs of the city, also robbed a saloon and several citizens. Sheriff S. H. Mitchell notified officers he wanted the men and would come for them. Last Tuesday he received a letter, stating that the men would evidently be sent to the penitentiary from Cincinnati. Adair county will be ready for them after the Ohio authorities get through with them.

Sophie Kerr finishes "Love of Woman" in this issue. "On Washington-Lincoln's Birthday," "Little Rosamund" and "The Magic of Dreams" are some of the other short stories.

"The Tuneless American" is an entertaining article about music in America by Albert Spalding, the violinist; and "Getting Acquainted With Yourself," by Arnold Bennett, and "The Girls Who Wanted to Marry Me" are two other interesting articles. "Succeeding in New Ways" gives some information about making money.

"The Eyes Have It" is an alluring display of beautiful moving picture actresses, and the fashions, cooking, and other regular departments are all filled with entertaining and valuable information.—Address, 318 Fourth Ave New York City.

Cortez Sanders a Candidate.

Elsewhere in the News Mr. Cortez Sanders' formal announcement appears for the office of Sheriff of Adair County. Mr. Sanders' candidacy is subject to the action of the Republican party. He is a son of Mr. W. F. Sanders and was born and reared in the county. He has been an active Republican since he reached his majority, and this is the first time he was ever before the people, asking for office. He is a gentleman of excellent character, and for a number of years he has been engaged in teaching and farming. He lives in the Egypt precinct, and wherever known is recognized as a gentlemanly qualified for the position he seeks. He is unanimously endorsed by the Republicans of his home precinct, and he hopes to make a favorable impression throughout the county. In the next few months he will endeavor to see the voters of the county, personally soliciting their support. In the meantime he will appreciate activity upon the part of his friends from now until the August primary, promising that should he be nominated he will use his endeavors to win at the November election.

Mr. Huffaker Announces for Re-election.

By reference to his card and regular announcement, it will be seen that Mr. Tobias Huffaker is a candidate for re-election to the office of School Superintendent of Adair county, subject to the action of the Republican party. His card fully explains his position. That he has made a very efficient officer since the day he was sworn in, no one can deny. He is thoroughly acquainted with the school laws of Kentucky, and he has followed his instructions to the letter. It has been customary from time immemorial when an officer has done his duty faithfully, to endorse him for the second term, and Mr. Huffaker and his friends feel that he is entitled to that recognition. He has had no favorites, having nothing in view but to make a capable, attentive official. To be a school superintendent an aspirant should have a first-class education, and should also be in love with school work. Both of these requisites are possessed by Mr. Huffaker. He pledges his party that if nominated he will use all honorable means to win in November, and he asks his friends throughout the county to become active in his interest. A little later he will canvass the county, presenting his claims to the voters.

Danger Signal.

If the fire bell should ring would you run and stop it or go and help to put out the fire? It is much the same way with a cough. A cough is a danger signal as much as a fire bell. You should no more try to suppress it than to stop a fire bell when it is ringing, but should cure the disease that causes the coughing. This can nearly always be done by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many have use it with the most beneficial results. It is especially valuable for the persistent cough that so often follows a bad cold or an attack of the grip. Mrs. Thomas Beechling, Andrews, Ind., writes: "During the winter my husband takes cold easily and coughs and coughs. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine for breaking up these attacks and you cannot get him to take any other." Obtainable at Paul Drug Co.

Real Service.

In the day of deception and demagoguery in public affairs, so much claimed and so little performed, it is gratifying to encounter a story of real service to the state, rendered unselfishly, and with little hope of reward, other than the knowledge of a duty well done.

This is the record of R. E. Jagers, the Hart county young teacher, who won a free trip to Washington as the most successful moonlight school teacher in the state during the past year.

Mr. Jagger's school was at Roseburg in an intensely rural section, and it enrolled 228 persons. Under his instruction seventy-five illiterates were taught to read and write. To have unfolded the wonders of the printed page to seventy-five Kentucky men and women, blighted with the curse of illiteracy, is a service greater than can be easily measured. Mr. Jagers has sown the seeds of a more useful, more intelligent and more worthy citizenship for each one of them.

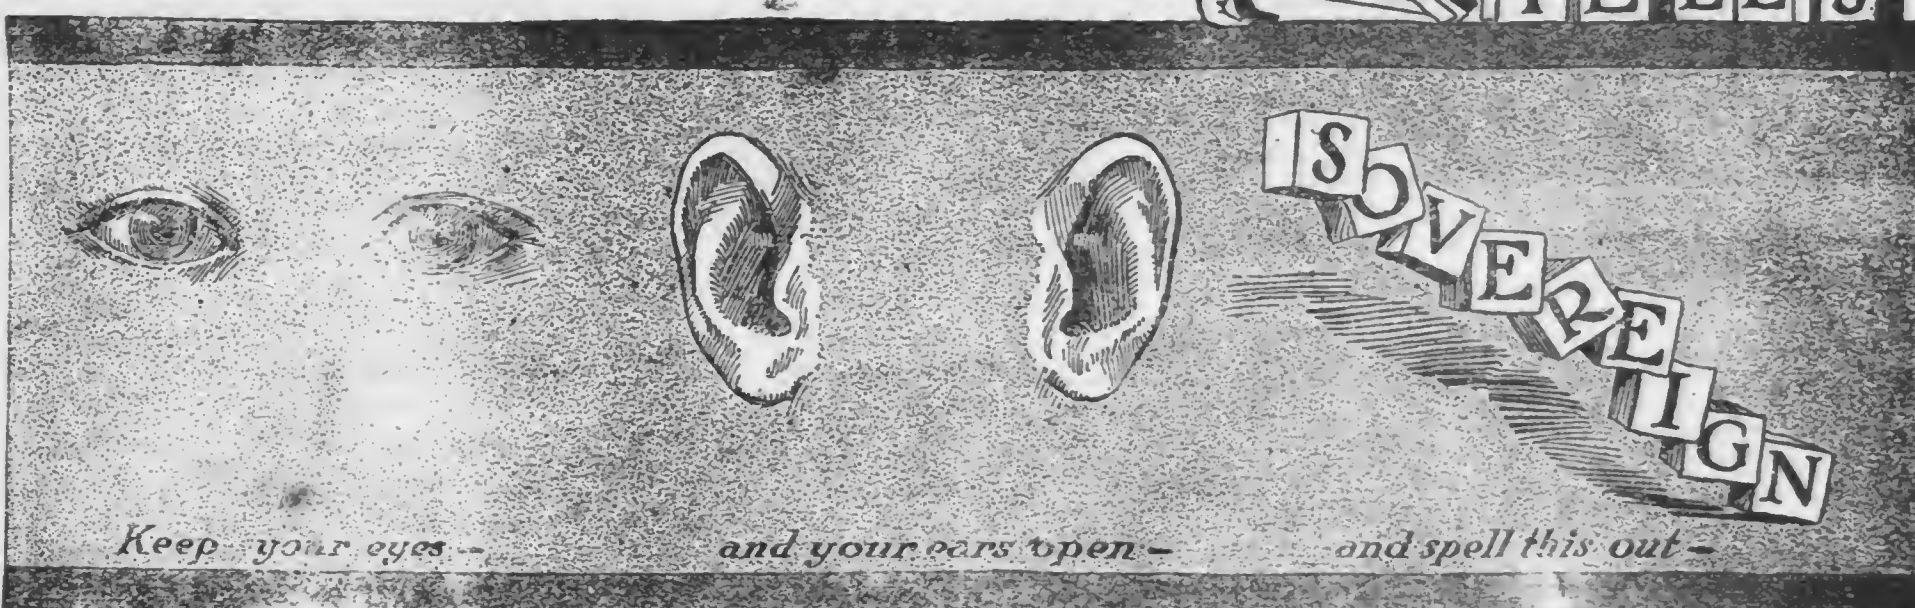

More than this, he has set an example which will be an inspiration to teachers throughout Kentucky and the nation.

We wrought nobly for Hart county and for Kentucky, and may his trip to Washington, as guests of the Kentucky delegation in Congress, be a round of continued pleasure.—E. Town News.

RELATIONS BROKEN.

Bernstorff is Given His Passports and the American Ambassador and all Consuls Ordered Home.

CHEERS GREET PRESIDENTS ADDRESS.

Washington, Feb. 3.—President Wilson has broken off diplomatic relations with Germany and warned the Kaiser that Ruthless sacrifice of American lives and rights means war. Similar action is waiting for Austria when she notifies this Government that she joins in the campaign of unrestricted submarine warfare.

The President made formal announcement of his action to the country and to the world to-day at a joint session of Congress.

Passports have been handed to Count von Bernstorff, Ambassador Gerard with all his staff and all American Consuls have been ordered out of Germany. All German Consuls in the United States are expected to withdraw, that the severance of relations may be complete. American diplomatic interests in Berlin have been turned over to Spain; German diplomatic interests in the United States have been taken over by Switzerland. Foreign diplomatic interests which the United States had in charge in Germany have been turned over to various neutrals.

Two years of diplomatic negotiation marked with frequent crises, and attended with the loss of more than 200 American lives on the high seas, have culminated with an act which in all the history of all the world has always led to war. Every agency of the American Government has been set in motion to protect the country against acts of German sympathizers. These moves are of necessity being kept secret.

With the notice of severance of relations the United States sent to Berlin a demand for the immediate release of sixty-four Americans taken from ships captured by German raiders in the South Atlantic.

At the request of the President Congress immediately after hearing his address began work on new laws framed by the Department of Justice to check conspiracies and plots against the United States which cannot be reached under existing statutes.

The question of conveying American merchant ships through the submarine blockade has been taken up, and is being considered as one of the next moves by this Government.

Neutral Governments have been notified of the action of the United States and have openly been invited to follow its action if the new submarine campaign violates their rights.

The breaking off of relations came with a crash, despite the fact that it had been discounted, and practically determined upon last night. The President returned from his night conference with the Senators determined that a break in relations was the only act "consistent with the dignity and the honor of the United States." He worked most of the night preparing his address to Congress.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning it became known that Ambassador Gerard had been ordered home and that passports had been sent to Count von Bernstorff. Although there was no official confirmation of the President's decision until he formally announced it himself to Congress, the knowledge spread rapidly.

Count von Bernstorff heard it unofficially while talking with an Associated Press correspondent. While apparently deeply moved, he was not surprised. His first act was to ask Dr. Pauli Ritter, the Swiss minister, to come to the German Embassy and prepare to take over its affairs. Then he informed his wife, an American born woman, of the development, and likewise told the embassy staff. His passports were not actually delivered until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. While the President was addressing Congress one of Secretary Lansing's confidential assistants called at the Embassy and delivered the passports and a note in reply to the German declaration.

Will Stand by the President.

All the prominent Germans of Louisville and Cincinnati who could be interviewed will stand by President Wilson. All of them declared that that has been their policy at all times. They said they had been for Germany as against her enemies in this war, but when it comes to the question of America against Germany, or any other country, it is America first last and all the time.

John Kasler, president of the German-American Alliance of this city, said: "I, with all of the members of the Alliance, are Americans first. The United States has given us, who have been born in the Old Country, a new home and our children have been born here. There cannot be and there never has been any question as to where the members of our alliance stand. We are for the United States and for President Wilson when our country is in danger."

Leo Schulmann, part owner of the Louisville Anzeiger, the only German daily of Louisville, said: "The Anzeiger is with the President in whatever he does. Right or wrong, we are with him. Personally I hope that the breaking off of diplomatic relations will not result in serious trouble between the two countries, but, whatever happens, we will stand by our President. The Anzeiger has always taken that stand and it can only reiterate it now."

Carl Weilandorff, former president of the German-American Alliance of this city, and now president of the State Alliance, had this to say: "The first impression I had after reading the news from Washington was that of regret. Aside from that, I and the members of the State Alliance are united on the question of what we will do. We will be for the President and the Government of the United States. If it is considered advisable to break off diplomatic intercourse with Germany, we are going to stand, man for man, behind the President and the Government. Although I was born in Germany I have always said that all the Germans in this country would support the President in whatever he might do to uphold the honor of the country, which now is our home."

Former President Theodore Roosevelt has tendered his service and that of his four sons to President Wilson. Col. Roosevelt is willing to raise an army of men and lead them wherever duty calls.

From Texas.

Belton, Jan., 29, 1917.

Editor News:—

"This is Monday afternoon, a clear, beautiful day, but finds your scribe just recovering from the throes of the gripe. When I came here one thing I hoped to do was to avoid the gripe, but I find they have as much here as in Kentucky. But under the treatment of Dr. Lawrence Williams, who is a chiropractic doctor, I am in four days myself again, so it is fortunate for me to be here if I had to have the gripe. Zella, my daughter-in-law, had it first, and she is up to day. You will never know what a chiropractic treatment is until you take one, so I will not undertake to describe it.

Find enclosed check for $1, for which send the News to J. A. Dice, to Belton, Texas, Route 2. I hardly see how any one who has ever lived in Adair county can afford to do without The News. I have received two good letters since I came here, from two good friends, who saw where I was from The News, and wrote me. One was from Ivan E. McDougle, of Worcester, Mass., who taught one year in Columbia High School. I sure appreciate it more than I can express. Then one from W. F. Keeton, an Adair county man, and was educated in Columbia, in the days of the M & F. School there. He has made good and is now superintendent of public schools in Collinsville, Texas. I used to know him at Creelsboro, Ky., and Rock House Bottom. He is a son of Robert Keeton. I shall keep these two letters, and hold them as precious treasures. The time to break the alabaster box is while we live. It can not do any good to the dead after we are gone.

To-morrow is Lawrence's birthday. He will be forty-four years old. That calls my attention to the fact that I am getting to be numbered among the old. My birthday and my daughter-in-law's birthday will be on the same day. I do not know what will happen then. We are invited to dine with my cousin, Mr. Mack Ray, next Friday. But I am not having a fair chance here at the dinners and things, for I am dieting you know, and while it is a little hard for me to do yet I am light dieting. For breakfast, coffee oat meal, toast, butter, egg. Dinner, soup, tomatoes, lettuce, rice, corn and bread. For supper, rice, cookies etc.

I have not even seen a Jack rabbit yet. I am to go out to the country some as soon as I am over this cold. L. C. Bradshaw, a Russell county man lives near Pendleton, Texas. Also W. F. Perryman, brother of Rev. G. W. Perryman deceased, lives in Pendleton. Warren, as we called him in Kentucky, is in very poor health, not expected to live long. I am hoping to see these old Kentucky neighbors and friends before long.

The Legislature of this State is now in session, and they are showing a bad hand in some respects. A vote was taken by the people last year, asking the Legislature to submit to the people a prohibition amendment to the constitution, and it carried by a large majority, but the Legislature has ignored the will of the people refusing to give the people a chance to vote the iniquitous liquor traffic out of business, which the good people of the state would do if they had a chance.

Now the next thing to do will be to call a Constitutional Convention and put in a "bone dry" plank in the new constitution, and this they will do from present prospects.
